What the Reformation can Teach us about Change

Manna Day Speaker:
Rev. Dr. Stuart Macdonald

Professor of Church and Society
Knox College, Toronto

Thursday Oct. 12th 2017
10:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Crieff Hills Retreat and Conference Centre

What the Reformation can Teach us about Change

When we think about the Reformation on this 500th Anniversary, our focus is often on key figures - Luther, Calvin, and others - or key theological ideas such as the primacy of scripture.

But, how did the reformers promote their ideas and transform the church: what were their strategies to institute change?

The day will focus on the themes of change and how the reformers successfully transformed the religious lives of their followers, through a clear vision, preaching, education, and other strategies.

Join us for a day of learning about change!

Guest Speaker: Rev. Dr. Stuart Macdonald

The Rev. Dr. Stuart Macdonald was ordained in the Presbyterian Church in Canada in 1985 and served for ten and a half years in congregational ministry until joining the faculty of Knox College in 1996.

He is currently Professor of Church and Society at Knox, and teaches in the areas of congregational leadership and church history.

His special areas of research include the reformation era, particularly the Scottish reformation, and change in the Canadian church since World War II.
